Announcements

Executive Directors

Changes have been made to the County Council's executive leadership team as part of the corporate response to the Children First Improvement Plan.

There will be a new department for Children, Young People and Learning, headed-up by an Executive Director who will be the statutory post holder for all of the Council's responsibilities for Children.

The Director of Education and Skills will report to the new Executive Director.

This department will sit alongside an Adults and Health department led by an Executive Director who will also hold the statutory role of Director of Adults' Social Services.

With effect from 11 November the posts are as follow:

- Executive Director Adults and Health – Kim Curry
- Executive Director Children, Young People and Learning – John Readman (Acting)
- Director of Education and Skills - Paul Wagstaff
