6. Public Question Time	The Police & Crime Commissioner (PCC) offered to pass the question to the data protection department of the Chief Constable's office for a response to the questioner. The Office of the PCC to add more graphics to the Annual Report to make it more user friendly.	PCC	Marcus Potter, Head of Information Management at Sussex Police, provided the OSPCC with the necessary information required to respond to the points raised by Mr Nixon during agenda item 6. Public Question Time. This information was shared with the Panel on 8 August 2018. COMPLETE. A copy of the revised version of the Annual Report 2017/18 was shared with the Panel on 14 September 2018. COMPLETE.
7. The Sussex Police & Crime Commissioner's Annual Report 2017/18	Panel to receive updates on the work around domestic violence and cross-boundary co-operation.	PCC	The Panel agreed to add both of these topics to the work programme for further consideration at some point in the future. COMPLETE.
9. Police Officer Recruitment Diversity Outcomes 2017/18	The Office of the PCC to supply further breakdown of applicants to the Panel via Ninesh Edwards.	PCC	Adrian Rutherford, Head of People Services Delivery for Sussex Police, confirmed that the small numbers involved means that it would, potentially, risk the identification of specific individuals if the breakdown of applicants was to be broken down any further than it currently is. It was also highlighted that, owing to these obvious sensitivities, this level of detail is not even produced by the Force. COMPLETE.
16. Commissioner's Question Time	A tour of the call centre was offered to the Panel.	PCC/PCP	Chief Superintendent Jane Derrick, Head of Contact Command and Control Centre, is happy to offer the new Panel members the opportunity to visit the Centre to take a tour and to understand better how this department works. Please contact Julie Collis, Secretarial Assistant, in the first instance to make the necessary arrangements. Julie can be contacted by email to: julie.collis@sussex.pnn.police.uk ONGOING.
