I often think if I was to get let loose in Boorsham for a day or two I would have a good drink XXX (Michels) but it dont do up here unless you want to go Bankrupt. Kindly let Ben know you have heard from me as usual Tell him will visit him again soon Im growing a beard dont forget it. wont know me from a crow much longer. shall try stick to Coolgardie as long as I can make a do of it might go out by & bye if I have luck unless I think I can do better where I am. The nights here though as a rule are very cool I dont know what we should do if they wernot. you cant imagine what a peculiar country this is. I cant compare it to anything. I know this much that when I get out of it I shant come back again. but I shant get out of it until Im better off than I am now. Wish some of you could spend the Sundays with us. they are very dull. theres a squad of Salvationists here with a band who inhabit a log hut arrangement like a lot of cannibals, Talk about Boorsham. Oh rats. will cant say would advise anyone to come here unless they got some brass to start with. mind theres money to be made here without a doubt if you can only get a start. Ive got a start but havent made the money yet think Ill shut up before it gets dark (it does get dark here) kindly rem^v me to your Dad + Mother + any other one in the "click" Hoping you are in the best of health (I am tho! Im a Cannibal) love + best wishes to the banks I dont know who they are - you must find them first + kind regards to Ben + Nell + my Chris + Hong + Believe me

Yours sincere friend
