WARNHAM NATIONAL SCHOOL.

RULES.

1.—The School hours are from 9.15 to 12.15 a.m.; and from 1.45 to 4 p.m. Children are required to be in their places when the School-bell rings. Saturday is a whole holiday.

2.—~~Payments for Tradesmen's children 3d. per week; for others 2d., to be paid in advance every Monday morning. No extra charge is made for books, slates, pens, &c. but children must provide their own Copy books and Home lesson books.~~

3.—All children are expected to come to School clean, tidy, and simply drest; to be quiet and orderly when entering and leaving the premises. Rough behaviour, fighting, throwing stones, or using bad language is strictly forbidden.

4.—No child should be absent without the Master's leave, or at the next attendance a note should be brought from the parents or guardians giving the reason. Each child before leaving the School should give a week's notice to the Master.

5.—During the afternoons the girls are instructed in Plain Needlework, Cutting Out, Mending, Knitting, &c., which must be shewn to H. M. Inspector. ~~On Thursdays they are required to bring their own work.~~

6.—~~On Sundays the scholars meet for Religious Instruction at 9.15 a.m., and 2 o'clock p.m.— Other children are invited to attend, and will be eligible for the Summer Treat.~~

7.—~~Prizes will be given in each division for Religious Knowledge and General Improvement to those recommended by the Examiners. Rewards for the greatest number of attendances will be distributed at the Christmas Treat.~~

8.—The children may pay into the Clothing Club on Monday mornings at the rate of 3d. or 2d. per week, according to their place in the first or second division of the School; and 1d. per week if in the Infant School. A bonus of 3d. on every shilling subscribed is added if the attendance has been punctual and regular, but not otherwise.

Board of the School J. A. H. SCOTT,
Warnham Vicarage, 1875. Curate of Warnham

Note.—It is particularly requested that Parents will pay attention to the above Rules, and enforce upon their children punctuality, and obedience to them: such a course being especially calculated to further the endeavours of the Managers, and assist in obtaining a favourable report of the School.

~~Note.—No Tickets of Admission to the Treats will be issued to those children who break any of these Rules.~~

Books can be borrowed from the Lending Library on Mondays, at a payment of One Penny per month.

~~Children belonging to the Church Choir will receive One Penny per month if their attendance and behaviour at the Services and Practices is satisfactory.~~
