Learning Resource: Harold Linfield

The Worthing Gazette On 14 July 1915

Harold F. Linfield (son of Mr and Mrs A.G. Linfield of the Laurels, Chesswood-road) was officially reported as wounded and missing last week. As a fact, it is now two months since any definite news was received concerning him, and although there is, of course, just a possibility that he may have been taken prisoner, the uncertainty as to his fate is naturally a source of much anxiety to his parents and his many friends'.
