We note with pleasure the offer made elsewhere in our columns by Mr. Allison to those of the Belgian refugees in the Chichester, Arundel, Bognor, and Littlehampton districts. Mr. Allison offers his services gratuitously to those refugees who need glasses. Both the testing and examination of the eyes, and also the supplying of the spectacles will be made without any charge or obligation whatever. Those who may happen to come in contact with the refugees will confer a favour on them by calling their attention to the notice in Flemish printed below: Tot Belgische Vluchtelingen. Tot Belgen in Bognor, Chichester, Littlehampton, Arundel, Petworth, en andere gemeente in de omstreken van Bognor, Mr. F. D. Allison, F.S.M.C., F.I.O., oogmeester, is gweilling de oogen te onderzoeken van de Belgische vluchtelingen van dezen omtrek, en indien het noodig is van hun kosteloos brillen te geven, de vluchtelingen kunnen komen tot Mr. Allison, 55, High Street, Bognor, en High Street, Arundel, en Beach Road, Littlehampton, en The Square, Petworth.
