THE LATE CAPT. STEWART.—A pathetic announcement has been made this week. Among the decorations and medals awarded by the French President at various dates to the British Forces for distinguished services rendered during the course of the campaign, and which the King has given unrestricted permission to wear, is that of the Legion d'Honneur Croix de Chevalier to Temp. Captain Henry Edward Stewart, of the Royal Sussex Regiment. As is well known, the gallant young officer has not lived to enjoy this high honour.
