LITTLEHAMPTON CRICKET CLUB.
A GRATIFYING YEAR.
The late W. P. DAVIS,
KEEPING MEMORY ALIVE.
Testimony to the way in which the members of the Littlehampton Cricket Club have given to the assistance of their country in this its time of need was afforded at the annual meeting of Friday, when instead of the large room of the Norfolk Hotel being required for the business of the annual meeting of subscribers, a smaller part of the establishment provided ample accommodation.

Mr. A. J. Constable again presided. Others present included the Club’s Auditors, Hon. Secretary, Mr. W. L. Harris, Mr. T. Duguid, Mr. S. Cox, Mr. H. Marshall, Mr. C. Perring, Mr. N. Spry, Mr. M. Shapter, Mr. H. M. Thomas, and Mr. H. Thompson.

The Annual Report.
The annual report was in the following terms:

Yours, &c., &c.,&c.,
Mr. Constable, Hon. Secretary.

Out of eight matches played, the results were as follows:--four won, one drawn, and three lost.

The matches won were against Liphook, Lymington (Borough), Arundel (St. Mary’s), Stanhope (Lawn), Worthing (T.R.C.C.), and Shoreham (Southsea), and one each against Henfield and the team from the Eastern Counties Ground, Eastbourne, and East Grinstead.

The highest batting average for the first XI was 51; for the second XI, 30; for the third XI, 26; and for the fourth XI, 25.

Mr. Davis, in his opening address, referred to the fine record of the Club in the past season, and called attention to the visits of the Club to the Eastern Counties, the beauty of the ground and the excellence of the hotel at which they were entertained. He also referred to the successful tour of the Eastern Counties team to Littlehampton, which had resulted in a handsome victory.

The Auditor’s Report was read by Mr. Constable, and was followed by the Chairman’s report, which was adopted with acclamation.

The Committee’s Report was then read and adopted, and the accounts were passed with satisfaction, Mr. Constable expressing the belief that the Club had made a good year’s work, and that the subscription money had been well spent.

The new officers for the coming season were then elected, as follows:

Chairman, Mr. W. L. Harris; Vice-Chairman, Mr. T. Duguid; Hon. Secretary, Mr. A. J. Constable; Auditors, Mr. S. Cox, Mr. H. Marshall; Treasurer, Mr. C. Perring; and Hon. Treasurer, Mr. N. Spry.

The meeting then came to a close with expressions of good wishes to the Officers of the Club for the coming season.
