 Leslie Speller's War case study

Source 9 - Taken from 'Wirebound World: Stalag Luft III', a publication produced by a former prisoner of the camp H. P. Clark, in 1946. It is a pictorial record about camp life and the theatre which he helped to build and run.

Leslie Speller had been a keen member of Littlehampton Amateur Dramatic Society before the war. He appeared in a production of Macbeth during his time as a POW alongside Kenneth Mackintosh who was a famous actor and greatly involved in the National Theatre.
