

Summary of Changes 2-Trade and Industry Technology

Source 1. Letterhead for Duke & Ockenden, Littlehampton, c1890

© West Sussex County Council Library Service [EPH_WSL_000001_001]

Source 2. D&O workers testing water flow from a borehole, Littlehampton, c1900

© Amberley Working Museum [P004]

www.westsussexpast.org.uk

© West Sussex County Council Library Service

Source 3. First waterworks in Worthing, c1857

© West Sussex County Council Library Service [P02769]

Source 4. Gas Works, Shripney Road, Bognor, c1895

© West Sussex County Council Library Service [PC001648]

Source 5. Victorian steam-driven traction engine, c1891

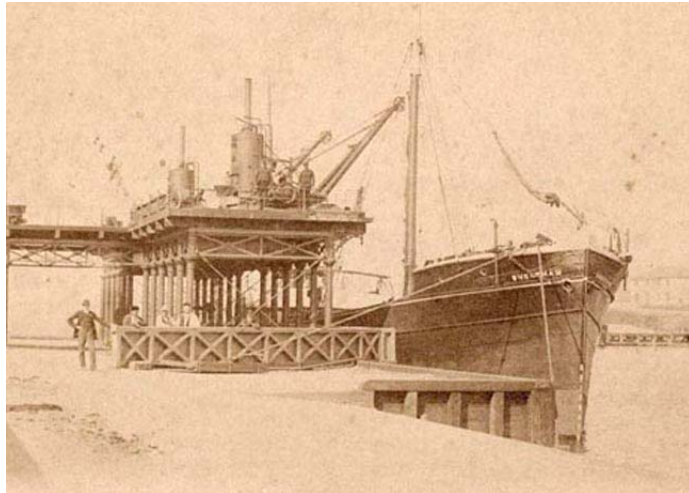

© Amberley Working Museum [P4968]

Source 6. Laying sewers with a steam crane, Worthing, 1894

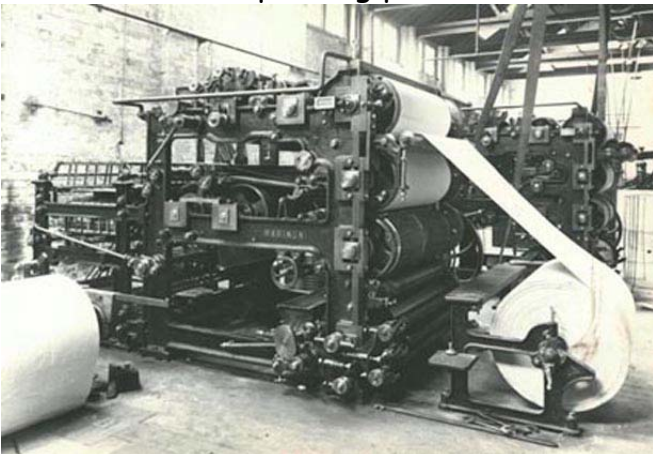

© West Sussex County Council Library Service [PC001648]

Source 7. Steam cranes on the wharf at Southwick canal, c1870

© Marlipins Museum Shoreham [96.2863]

Source 8. Steam printing press, West Sussex Gazette, Arundel, c1890

© Arundel Museum [AX119]