

Wartime West Sussex 1939 - 1945

WOMEN AT WAR - WAR JOBS

Women become munitions makers

The Sussex Daily News, January 3rd 1942

© Sussex Daily News courtesy of The Argus

Extracts from Despatches from the Home Front, The War Diaries of Joan Strange 1939-1945 (Monarch Publications, 1989)

1941

February 9th

It's been a very full life domestically this week as we are still maidless. A lot of the young girls are munition making.

© Monarch Publications E300121652

www.westsussexpast.org.uk

© West Sussex County Council Library Service